

NEWS RELEASE

---

For Immediate Release

March 2, 2026

Darrin Dinello Tapped to Lead Pine Street Land Company

HARRISBURG, Pa. — Pine Street Land Company today announced that Darrin Dinello has been named president and general counsel of the real estate title and settlement services firm.

Dinello has nearly three decades of experience in the title insurance and real estate settlement industry. Throughout his career, he has served as owner, managing partner and general counsel to several settlement agencies and real estate companies.

A practicing attorney, Dinello joins Pine Street Land Company after nearly 30 years of leading his own private practice law firm and settlement agency.

“We are excited to have Darrin leading the Pine Street Land team,” said Brian Jackson, chair of McNees Wallace & Nurick, the parent company of Pine Street Land Company. “Darrin is a trusted and respected voice in commercial and residential real estate matters. His depth and breadth of knowledge across nearly all facets of real estate transactions will undoubtedly provide confidence and assuredness to Pine Street Land clients as they seek a smooth and seamless closing process.”

Throughout his career, Dinello has negotiated more than 500 leases worth over $40 million for a wide range of tenants, including Fortune 500 companies. In addition, he has managed more than 14,000 real estate closings over his nearly 30 years in the business.

At Pine Street Land Company, Dinello will lead a team of licensed title agents in Pennsylvania and Maryland. The company serves clients with a range of commercial and residential real estate settlement needs.

“I’m thrilled to join Pine Street Land and am excited to lead our growing team as we raise the bar on client service,” Dinello said. “With the resources of McNees behind us, Pine Street Land can offer clients a higher level of service for just about any real estate transaction – from routine closings to complex commercial deals. Exceptional client service is our mantra.”

Dinello earned his law degree from Widener University School of Law, now known as Widener University Commonwealth Law School. He earned a bachelor’s degree from Catholic University.

###

About Pine Street Land Company

Pine Street Land Company is a full-service real estate title insurance and settlement services agency serving commercial and residential clients in Pennsylvania and Maryland. A subsidiary company of McNees Wallace & Nurick, Pine Street Land offers clients a range of real estate transaction settlement services to help clients achieve a seamless and efficient closing.

PineStreetLand.com